FOCUS: HALEY AND JONATHAN AND CAROLINE CALORE

Trying to describe either Haley or Jonathan would take a complete page for each. This young Ashland family is a family on the go, each working full-time jobs, and still finding time to nurture their little toddler, Caroline. Caroline is a precocious child who is "spoiled" by two sets of grandparents and great grandparents. By the way, Jonathan is the son of John and Sandra Calore, some of Ashland's originals.

Jonathan grew up in Columbia, living the major part of his life in the Whitehall area and attending Ashland UMC. He graduated from Irmo High School in 1994 and then graduated from Clemson University with a BS in Forestry, minor in Wildlife. Jonathan ran track in high school, played a variety of other sports, and earned the Eagle Scout award from Troop 314 at Ashland. After graduation from Clemson, he worked in the upstate for awhile, and then accepted the job of County Forester in Orangeburg. Still looking for growth, he completed law enforcement training at the Police Academy whereby he could combine those skills with the Forestry Department. Currently, he is the Assistant Law Enforcement Chief at the Forestry Department. He has many hobbies such as landscaping, outfitting a pickup truck with gadgets, and carpentry. He has been involved with several programs at Ashland but he is most proud of his work Salkhatchie (3 years) and filling in to help complete some projects at the end of the week. While in Orangeburg, he and Haley attended St. Andrews UMC where he was President of UMM and worked on an ET House. He runs twice a week at 4:30 am and has participated in the Dam Run and the Marine Corp Mud-Run at Ft. Jackson.

When Jonathan was in college, his buddy fixed him up with a blind date. Theirs is a cute story of how Haley knew who Jonathan was because he was a year older at Irmo HS and how Jonathan persuaded different friends to give him Haley's phone number. Happy ending--they were married in June 1999.

Haley, an Irmo HS graduate and graduate of Converse College in Music Education and Violin Performance, is no stranger to the congregation at Ashland. She has provided spiritual uplifting through her music, which we will enjoy at least once a month from now on. When Haley graduated, got married, and moved to Orangeburg, she obtained a teaching job in the middle schools. She knew she wanted to continue teaching music and returned to USC for a Masters degree in Music Education. She currently teaches at Irmo Middle School. She also teaches private violin lessons. She plays with the SC Philharmonic Orchestra and at weddings. What may surprise you is that this talented lady also plays with the blue grass band called the Carolina Hayride. This group will perform at the SC State Museum on October 10. Although Haley grew up in Redeemer Lutheran Church and was married there, she has adjusted to being a Methodist.

Thank you, Jonathan and Haley, for being a vital part of the youthful influence at Ashland.
